

SUNDAY 7TH AUGUST

	 Magabala Books	A morning with Marie Munkara 10-11am Magabala Books 1 Bagot Street (across from Broome Visitor Centre) FREE	The flip side of tragedy is comedy. Join Marie Munkara for a discussion about her recent autobiographical work, Of Ashes and Rivers that Run to the Sea (Random House 2016) and her fictional works, A Most Peculiar Act (Magabala Books 2014) and David Unaipon winning work, Every Secret Thing (Penguin Books 2009).
	 BROOME PUBLIC LIBRARY	Tricks of the Trade Poetry with Andrew Burke 10.30am-12.30pm Broome Public Library Cnr Haas and Hamersley Streets $25 (waged) $15 (unwaged)	Andrew Burke, MA, PhD, is an Australian author and poet, with a novel and short stories published over the years and a dozen books of poetry. He is an experienced poetry presenter and workshop facilitator. Bring pen, pad and imagination – words are only one tool in your poetry toolbox!
	 BROOME PUBLIC LIBRARY	Making the Familiar Strange Speculative Fiction Workshop with Emilie Collyer 1-3pm Broome Public Library Cnr Haas and Hamersley Streets FREE	Do you love your fiction a little on the strange side? Join award-winning author Emilie Collyer for a workshop that takes you through different speculative genres, including magic realism, science-fiction and the supernatural. Learn where to find material and how to turn ideas into stories. Come away with the beginnings of your own new piece of fiction.
	 Westerly MANGROVE HOTEL	Westerly Magazine Issue 61.1 In Conversation with Kimberley Authors 11.30am-12.30pm Argyle Room, Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street FREE	Westerly Issue 61.1 focuses on collaborative Indigenous and non-Indigenous creative practice. Contributors include Edwin Mulligan, Pat Lowe, Dalisa Pigram, Jacqueline Wright, Wayne Barker and Rachael Swain. Come join the conversation with a distinguished panel of Kimberley authors facilitated by Rachel Bin Salleh (Magabala Books) and Bruce Gorrington (Marrugeku).
	 MANGROVE HOTEL	Growing Up Our Way: Aboriginal Children, History and Health 1-2pm Argyle Room Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street FREE	Broome author Ms Edie Wright will launch the book: Aboriginal Children, History and Health: Beyond Social Determinants by John Boulton, long-time Kimberley paediatrician. There will be a panel discussion with John, Edie, and Kimberley historian Howard Pedersen, moderated by UWA adjunct professor Sandy Toussaint.
	 MANGROVE HOTEL	The Judge meets Mary G 2.15-3.15pm Argyle Room Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street FREE	Enjoy Mary G interview retired Kimberley magistrate, Antoine Bloemen, about his memoir. As one reviewer said, "His rise from the humblest backgrounds in rural Belgium to magisterial authority in the Kimberley must be one of the country's most remarkable success stories."
	 SSJG HERITAGE CENTRE BROOME	Bringing stories to life: An introduction to illustrating children's books 2.30-4.30pm Bernardine Greene Room SSJG Heritage Centre 9 Barker Street - $10	Do you have an idea for a children's book? Using simple examples, local artist and bestselling children's author Kerry Jordinson will show you how to bring stories to life through the art of illustration. Drawing materials provided. Booking required at library. Maximum 15 participants.
	 MANGROVE HOTEL	Dirt Cloud by Mari Lourey The full play reading 3.30-5.30pm Argyle Room, Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street $10 donation at door welcomed	Dirt Cloud is a new play in development set in Australia's north-west against a backdrop of mining, relationship to land and space exploration. Read by a cast of local actors, this inspiring new Australian work is supported by Playwriting Australia, The Australia Council for the Arts, the Rodney Seaborn and Ross Trust Awards.
 CORRUGATED LINES MANGROVE HOTEL		Epilogue 5.30-6.30pm Tides Bar Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street FREE	Join us for a drink as we review Corrugated Lines for 2016. As the sun sets and the moon rises over the bay, mingle with the characters of this year's festival during this penultimate celebration.
 the Roey of 1930		Australian Songwriters Concert: Fitzroy Xpress and Neil Murray (Warumpi Band) 7-11pm Roebuck Bay Hotel $25 - Roebuck Bay Hotel front desk and at the door	Grassroots Records present two of Australia's music legends for the closing party of Corrugated Lines : singing songs from Australia's heartlands, evoking a passion and respect for our roots and telling our story through Country Rock & Roll. This is a rare chance to experience Australian songwriting at its finest.

corrugated lines

A FESTIVAL OF WORDS • BROOME • 5-7 AUGUST 2016

Broome's Readers and Writers Festival

<http://www.facebook.com/CorrugatedLines?fref=ts>
<https://twitter.com/CorrugatedLines>

Programs available at the Broome Public Library, the Broome Visitor Centre or online at backroompress.com.au

WEEK BEFORE	 	Linguistics Roadshow <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • St Mary's College • Broome Senior High School • Derby District High School See website for more details: www.lingroadshow.com	The Linguistics Roadshow is a fun and interactive showcase about the science of language, presenting the big questions and the little-known facts about language for high-school students. Roadshow school visits include fun, hands-on workshops that engage and enlighten students about language in Australia and across the world.			Buddha Bombs and the Babu The minefields of writing about family and far-flung destinations 1-1.45pm Broome Public Library Cnr Haas and Hamersley Streets FREE	Whose story is it? Yours? Theirs? And how far is too far? Writing about another country can be tricky. Writing about family, fraught with danger. Blend together, throw in some culture shock and it can be an exploding minefield of enlightenment and hilarity. Join author Kerry Tolson for a chat about her first book, Buddhas, Bombs and the Babu: A family's journey of discovery through the spirit of Nepal.
FRIDAY 5TH AUGUST	 	Backroom Press Book Treasure Hunt Friday 5th August and ongoing over the Corrugated Lines Festival weekend Various locations	The Backroom Press team will drop books in strategic spots at each venue, and at other locations around town, for festival-goers to hunt for over the Corrugated Lines weekend. If you're lucky enough to find one, you will see a message from us inside the front cover with instructions for what to do next.			The Japanese Hospital in Broome 1910-1926: A Harmony of Contrasts 1.30-2.30pm Bernardine Greene Room SSJG Heritage Centre 9 Barker Street Gold coin donation	The Japanese Hospital is the only hospital in Australia's history predominantly controlled and funded by an alien people. Dr Peter Stride describes how, despite the White Australia policy and bitter resistance from the white community, the hospital became such a respected institution.
FRIDAY 5TH AUGUST	Stories on the SPOT [Improv] 	Stories on the SPOT! 2.30-3.00pm Drama Room St Mary's College 3 Port Drive	Create stories on the spot using conventions of improvisation in this energetic, fun and challenging workshop. Join Miss Emily Criddle and the SMC Drama students at their Drama studio. Open to school-aged students from years 6-12.			Goolarri Indigenous Writers present excerpts from works in progress 2-4pm Gimme Gimme Club, Goolarri 7-9 Blackman Street $5 donation welcomed at door	Goolarri presents excerpts of new work from some of Broome's most exciting new performance writers. Actors will read in an informal rehearsed event, directed by Yirra Yaakin's Artistic Director Kyle Morrison. Supported by Australia Council for the Arts, Country Arts West, Yirra Yaakin Theatre and the University of Notre Dame.
FRIDAY 5TH AUGUST	  	Corrugated Lines Prologue 5.15-6.15pm Broome Public Library Cnr Haas and Hamersley Streets FREE	Join us for the Opening of Corrugated Lines 2016. Be welcomed by the traditional owners of Yawuru country and be introduced to the authors and events that make up the exciting chapters of this year's Corrugated Lines story. Drinks, canapés and a chance to mingle with our festival guests.		 	Red dirt, white culture and black women's law 3.45-4.45pm Short Street Gallery 7 Short Street FREE	Through fiction and non-fiction, Zohel de Ishtar and Jacqueline Wright discuss intercultural relationships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australians. Using their experiences in remote Aboriginal communities, the authors explore the complex issues hindering the right of Indigenous peoples to self-determination, the dangers of a single story and the way forward for genuine partnerships.
FRIDAY 5TH AUGUST	  	Tropo book launch by Madelaine Dickie 6.30-8.30pm Mangrove Hotel 47 Carnarvon Street FREE - Register for your ticket online at http://bit.ly/29yFXTb	After eight long years, Madelaine Dickie is stoked to be launching her novel Tropo, winner of the 2014 City of Fremantle T.A.G Hungerford Award. Set in Indonesia, it's a book about black magic, big waves and mad Aussie expats. Come along for a book reading, signing, and a great party! Sponsored by Lotterywest & Fremantle Press.		 	and.... Action! Creative screenwriting for adults with Michael McCall 3.30-5.30pm Broome Public Library Cnr Haas and Hamersley Streets FREE	And.... Action! Fancy creating the story for your own movie? Well, here's your chance. Create your own screenplay and read it to other participants to gain valuable feedback on your style. Voice your opinions on their work too. Are you the next George Lucas or Alfred Hitchcock? Let your creativity shine! BYO iPad, laptop or pen and paper.
FRIDAY 5TH AUGUST	 	Corrugated Lines and Backroom Press Market Stall 9am-12pm Broome Courthouse Markets 8 Hamersley Street	Backroom Press is one of Australia's smallest publishing houses, run entirely by volunteers. We are one of the founders and organisers of Corrugated Lines. Come and visit our stall on Saturday morning during the festival and see the books we have published, as well as the books featured in the festival. You may want to buy one of them.			Two Sisters book launch 5.30-7pm Magabala Books 1 Bagot Street (across from Broome Visitor Centre) FREE	Join Magabala Books to celebrate the launch of Two Sisters, as told to Pat Lowe and Erilys Richards by Walmajarri sisters, Ngarta Jinny Bent and Jukuna Mona Chuguna. Hear stories about the women's extraordinary lives and dramatic recollections of their exodus from the Great Sandy Desert following European settlement.
SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST	 	The nuts and bolts of Dad jokes with Matthew Middleton 9-10.30am Broome Men's Shed 4 Jones Place FREE	Does a good Dad joke have to be bad? This light-hearted workshop is for anyone willing to participate in unpacking the nuts and bolts of Dad jokes, with the opportunity to share your best or worst Dad jokes. Be prepared to laugh, groan, shake your head and improve your skills with Matthew Middleton, a grandfather to three Kimberley boys.			The Divination Agency 8-10.30pm Broome Writers Group Piano Bar, Roebuck Bay Hotel Carnarvon Street FREE	Armed with a mystical dictionary, brushes, a typewriter and lots of ink, the Divination Agency is a corner of magical chaos. Explore your present or future through images or the typed word. Bad love poems also available by request. For more information, find The Divination Agency on Facebook.
SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST	 	Living Library 9am-4pm Broome Circle House 27 Frederick Street FREE	The Broome Living Library celebrates the ancient tradition of storytelling. By borrowing a person rather than a book, festival-goers will get a chance to hear the stories of their community. They will gain new insights, build relationships and develop a deeper understanding of their Broome neighbours.			Word of Mouth Spoken Word Event 8-10.30pm Broome Writers Group Piano Bar, Roebuck Bay Hotel Carnarvon Street FREE	A spoken-word night featuring local Broome writers and festival guests performing their work. Writing may be prose, poetry, monologue, or rap... anything that demands to be freed from the page and given a voice. Includes open mic time - get there early to sign up on the night.
SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST	 	In conversation with Kankawa Nagarra Olive Knight and Terri-ann White 10am-11.30am Cable Beach Club 1 Cable Beach Road $20 - tickets sold prior at venue	Kankawa Nagarra Olive Knight is a musician, translator, social worker and mother, with deep roots in the Kimberley region. She has lived a rich life full of love and hardship. Cushla Travers from ABC Kimberley talks to Olive Knight and Terri-ann White, Director of UWA Publishing, about turning life into memoir. Olive will also sing gospel, contemporary blues and traditional Walmajarri songs.			Love your red pen, love your tush 9-10.00am Kallis Room, Library University of Notre Dame 88 Guy Street FREE	Juliet is a whizz-bang editor and IYTA yoga teacher. She balances her love of language (time at the desk) with her love of yoga (time away from the desk), and this workshop will meld the two. Juliet will introduce a rubric to help you edit any piece of writing, plus strategies to keep you creative and prevent square-bum-itis. Tea and coffee provided.
SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST	 	Yawuru Ngan-gagudja (Yawuru talking) 12 noon-1pm Mabu Yawuru Ngan-ga 55 Reid Road, Cable Beach FREE	Have the Yawuru experience. Listen to the Yawuru story, learn Yawuru greetings, view publications and get an insight into the Yawuru culture. Sarah Yu will present the new book that accompanies the Jetty to Jetty walk and phone app, Walking Jetty to Jetty.			Broome's Biggest Book Club 9-10.00am The Lockup Café 22 Carnarvon Street FREE	Have you ever read a novel and wanted to discuss it with other readers? Well, here is your chance. Grab a copy of this easy-to-read book, Calypso Summer by Jared Thomas at Magabala Books. We'll meet at the Lockup Café for a coffee and a chat.

SATURDAY 6TH AUGUST

SUN 7TH AUG